For my daughter, Simone.—JP

To my favorite sandwich eaters, Lucinda and Adrian.—HB

You made fun of my sandwich.
Just like you did last week.

My sandwich doesn't mind.
It doesn't know any words.

I wonder why you make fun of my sandwich.

Maybe you think it's a space rock or a square-faced fish...

What Are You Feeling? What Are You Thinking?

You can answer these questions while you're reading the story or after you have finished reading. You can think about the questions yourself or share your ideas with someone else.

- ★ How do you feel when someone makes fun of something important to you? Why do you think you feel this way?
- ★ The storyteller wants to know why their classmate is making fun of their sandwich. Do you think the storyteller is:

- serious?
- curious?
- funny?
- puzzled?
- angry?
- upset?

- ★ What other words could describe how the storyteller feels?
- ★ Why does the storyteller think it's important to find out the reason for the teasing?
- ★ What is your favorite funny sandwich picture in this book? Why do you like this picture?

- ★ Draw your idea of a funny sandwich. What could your sandwich be mistaken for?
- ★ Pretend a new movie starring a sandwich has just come out. It could be a funny movie, a scary movie, or even a mystery! What is the name of the movie?
- ★ How does the storyteller know their classmate isn't mean? Why is this fact important?
- ★ Why do you think the classmate makes fun of the sandwich? What sentences help you answer that question?
- ★ Do you like the way the book ends? Why or why not? What would you do in a similar situation?
- ★ Have you been hungry or do you know someone who might not have enough healthy food? You can ask for help from a trusted adult.
